Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

This request would allow improvements to baseball fields, tennis courts, and the entire Palmetto Park to better attract tourists and tournaments in a highly competitive sports tourism market. The Palmetto Tennis Center, which is located inside of Palmetto Park, hosts an extensive tournament schedule from local, state, regional, and national to pro circuit events. Palmetto Park also hosts baseball and softball tournaments from across the region. The park serves as a recreational facility that can be utilized by all citizens and visitors of Sumter through tennis, baseball, softball, and pickleball to a playground and splash pad. Throughout the year, Palmetto Park brings visitors to Sumter which aids in economic growth for the City and local businesses.
