Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

U.S. Museums generate more than $12 billion per year to federal, state, and local governments. Over the past two years, the Gibbes Museum of Art has presented its weeklong, annual visual arts festival, Art Charleston. With a 5-day focus on the visual arts through signature events, unique experiences, artist lectures, gallery walks, professional workshops, and exhibition tours led by experts, visitors came to Charleston and further supported the tourism economy through hotel stays, visits to restaurants, and support of retail and galleries related to the arts. Art Charleston has successfully provided more than $500K in support of local vendors and businesses. Similar to other local festivals in this region, Art Charleston enhances the cultural landscape through immersion in the visual arts and highlights the Gibbes as a place where strong and diverse human stories are told through the arts. A portion of the funding will also be used to acquire artwork and objects that diversify the permanent collection of the Gibbes to include BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and Persons of Color) from the 18th century to the present. We unlock diversity's power and beauty by intentionally fostering an inclusive, accessible museum fashioned upon a foundation of equity.
