RE: Audit Explanation

The South Carolina Hall of Fame was founded in 1973 and has inducted 100 state citizens from that time through 2020. When the pandemic hit right after its 2020 induction ceremony, the organization did not have any induction ceremonies for three years. During those three years, there was a total of $2,500 in revenue that came in just to continue to pay insurance costs, website updates, and bank fees. There was no revenue or expenses to warrant an expensive audit of the organization's financials. The organization did continue to file the annual required 990N by the IRS. Copies of those filings are attached as well as the financial statements for the past three fiscal years in lieu of an audit.

For any questions or concerns, please contact me at 843-916-7211.

Respectfully submitted,
