Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The Manning Avenue Art Corridor will add a building on Manning Avenue that is aimed at fostering art-related creativity and cultural experiences in children, youth, adults, and seniors within the Sumter and surrounding areas, which is both comprehensive and transformative. This building along this corridor will serve to collaborate with local artists and educators to design and equip dedicated art studios for painting, sculpture, music, and dance, ensuring that the spaces are fully accessible and inspiring. This will serve as a hub for a resource library for arts education materials, creating a holistic cultural environment that also engages community volunteers for mentorship programs.
