Description	Budget	Explanation
Operations - Marketing, PR, Symposium Events, Office Operations	$1,000,000.00	This money will be used for the day to day operations in order to promote and market the National Medal of Honor Leadership and Education Center's programs that we will be providing to the public. These programs will be based on the Medal of Honor values and will have a very positive effect on the future of our society. Funds are needed in order to promote our project and attract donors so we can build our center at Patriots Point and offer even more leadership courses and seminars to people across the country. The conference center and immersive experience in Mount Pleasant, S.C. will attract organizations and individuals from across the country and beyond.
Grand Total	$1,000,000.00

Our program will inspire and educate people in the values of the Medal of Honor – Courage, Integrity, Commitment, Sacrifice, Citizenship and Patriotism. The conference center will provide character development and leadership symposiums, certification programs, coaching and retreats and immersive and special exhibits. This is part of an effort to revitalize America through a nationwide leadership development program based on the core values of the Medal of Honor. We are targeting the curriculum at corporate, healthcare, education, veterans and nonprofit groups. Medal of Honor recipients will play a major role in these programs, offering their experiences and inspiration. The programming will help existing leaders in organizations who are striving to build a values-based culture to show that values are a critical part of any significant decision-making process and an especially important when junior leaders and staff are expected to make decisions that have an impact on employees, clients/customers, suppliers and other stakeholders.
