Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The project is designed to promote public knowledge and understanding of the history, stories and culture of African Americans in rural Richland County. Exhibits, performances, guided tours and opportunities for public participation in discussions before and after the 2024 Juneteenth Celebration will give visitors insight into the lives of the formerly enslaved families who lived on this property, the Harriet Barber House and grounds, and throughout the state. A major focus will be placed on the Reconstruction Era National Network, sponsored by the National Park Service, where the Harriet Barber House is among several other historic sites in our state recognized for its significance during this era. Sites like the Harriet Barber House provide the public with education, historical interpretation and research related to the period from 1861 to 1900. This designation offers an opportunity to tell a more accurate and complete story of American heritage. Also, the Harriet Barber House appears to be the only existing house built on property purchased in 1872 through the SC Land Grant Program during the Reconstruction Era. The 2024 Juneteenth Celebration will be a public observance of the national holiday with special emphasis on the historic Harriet Barber House built on property purchased by freed slaves, Sam and Harriet Barber, during the Reconstruction Era. Visitors will be able to learn more about the Reconstruction Era in South Carolina and how freed men and women were able to sustain themselves and thrive after being enslaved.
