

ACCOUNTANT'S COMPILATION REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Williamsburg Hometown Chamber
Kingstree, South Carolina

Management is responsible for the accompanying statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the Williamsburg Hometown Chamber – Williamsburg County Tourism Board for the period from July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2023, and for determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable financial reporting framework. We have performed a compilation engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services Committee of AICPA. We did not audit or review the statement of cash receipts and disbursements nor were we required to perform any procedures to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by management. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion, a conclusion, nor provide any assurance on the statement of cash receipts and disbursements.

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management has elected to omit substantially all of the disclosures ordinarily included in the financial statements prepared in accordance with the cash basis of accounting. If the omitted disclosures were included in the financials statement, they might influence the user's conclusions about the Chamber's statement of cash receipts and disbursements. Accordingly, the financial statement is not designed for the those who are not informed about such matters.
