Explanation of any unspent funds (to be provided only if unspent funds remain at the end of the fiscal year) :

The Gibbes will continue to carefully select works of art meeting the museum mission, and grant goals to diversify the collection by BIPOC artists. This process continues by working with artists, auction houses, and art advisors to fulfill this opportunity and meet the needs of our community and state over the course of this grant term.

Expenditure Certification

The Organization certifies that the funds have been expended in accordance with the Plan provided to the Agency Providing the Distribution and for a public purpose.
