Explanation of any unspent funds (to be provided only if unspent funds remain at the end of the fiscal year):

Phase One of the Walnut Grove restoration work began in April 2024. Phase One is focused on the foundational structure. The cost of the foundation restoration is covered by a grant from the State Historic Preservation Office at the SC Department of Archives & History. The expenses associated with the Legislative grant are part of the Phase Two restoration, which will begin in late summer 2024.

Expenditure Certification

The Organization certifies that the funds have been expended in accordance with the Plan provided to the Agency Providing the Distribution and for a public purpose.
