Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

Brookgreen Gardens is a National Historic Landmark and economic engine for the state. The new Welcome Center and Conservatory Gardens will create a unique attraction in South Carolina with year-round tropical gardens to attract tourists in all seasons and educate thousands of schoolchildren and residents throughout the year. Brookgreen has raised $20 of the $25 million need for capital improvements from private gifts, including more than $6 million from out of state donors. The construction and resulting visitation will add millions to the state's economic development by attracting new tourists and supporting new jobs.
