Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The $10,000 funding for the Freedom Walkway Celebration will be used to honor the legacy of individuals and groups who fought for justice and equality in Rock Hill and beyond. The celebration will enhance community engagement through student documentary work, public art, and recognition of local heroes who contributed to our community's progress toward liberty and justice for all. This initiative fosters unity and awareness of historical achievements, creating a lasting cultural and educational benefit for the public. Learn more at Freedom Walkway.
