Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The Ridgeway Town Park is located in the center of Town and is used by residents and non-residents alike. The park is a prominent feature in Town and with recent other improvements, provides an attractive gathering space for all. Two picnic shelters have been added and planning for bathroom facilities is nearing completion with construction expected to start soon thereafter. The addition of the items requested in this application will further enhance the site and provide more opportunities for outdoor activities for the park's patrons.
