Please provide a detailed spending summary, goals that were accomplished, and how the expenses benefit the public. If project is yet to be started, provide an explanation. The dollars spent to repair and/or replace property and equipment with critical deferred maintenance needs and to upgrade and expand the park allows Riverbanks Zoo & Garden to continue to create connections, inspire action and positively impact wildlife and wild places. Addressing the existing capital needs assists the Zoo & Garden in sustaining current operations, attractions and educational programs which support more than 1,300 jobs across the State of South Carolina. This allows Riverbanks to continue to offer the highest standards of care for the animals and plants in their care. This allows Riverbanks to continue to deliver a diverse educational and high-quality recreational experience for all Riverbanks guests. And lastly, this allows Riverbanks Zoo & Garden to continue to inspire actions that will have a lasting impact on conservation across the State of South Carolina.
