Explanation of any unspent funds (to be provided only if unspent funds remain at the end of the fiscal year) :

The initial plan was for the support from PRT to be used to pay for the casting of bronze hands to be mounted on the memorial fountain. The 36 pairs of hands represent the 36 bodies that were disinterred in 2013 during the renovation of the Gaillard Auditorium. The City of Charleston provided that specific support and the PRT support was used for construction of the fountain basin and the mounting of the bronze hands on the basin. The Memorial was dedicated on December 14, 2025 and is now open to the public. Over the time from when the PRT support was
