Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The North Augusta Miracle League (NAML) Field will be designed as a multipurpose field with 2 baseball diamonds and a soccer field. It will be built in the Riverview Baseball Complex in North Augusta making it visible in the community. In addition to the field being used for baseball, the North Augusta Miracle League will be designed to be a multipurpose facility where other therapeutic activities such as tournaments, kickball, pickleball, movie nights, and more can be held. The REcing Crew will partner with other agencies that provide services to children and adults with disabilities within the community to offer them the use of the field for their special programs, outdoor activities, classroom programs, and more.

The North Augusta Miracle League Field will offer an inclusive and accessible area for children and adults with disabilities to experience a variety of sports and activities without barriers or obstacles within their community.
