Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

Studies have shown cultural and art facilities such as Performing Arts and Events Centers generate increased tourism and economic development providing economic and financial benefits to the business and residential communities of cities. Case studies provide examples, such as Greenville and other small urban communities, which suffered from abandoned buildings and distressed economics in the core commercial districts can benefit greatly by investing in entertainment venues. Our Event Center will provide such opportunities in downtown Seneca as we continue to redevelop a once stagnant and depressed business climate. The City of Seneca government and community will see increased economic development and tourism which will lead to additional investment downtown allowing for business investments and increased City revenue.
