Each project described above will provide educational opportunities to illustrate the local history. They will provide public gathering places for local town events, speakers, festivals, as well as signage to tell visitors where to find these locations for tourists as they visit each location. The murals will provide a glimpse into the local history and encourage tourists to visit and enjoy not only the mural but local shops and historical locations. The outdoor projector and screen for the Town of Lane will provide a means of sharing local history and entertainment with visitors and the lighting will improve the safety of the public in each location. Each project will enhance the ability of each location to encourage visitors to come and see local historic sites, educate them on the history of the area, and provide gathering places for many types of community events. The increase in visitors will positively impact the economy of each locality as they spend their money in local shops and businesses.
