

The Black Cultural Enlightenment Society

Black Cowboy Festival

2023 Summary

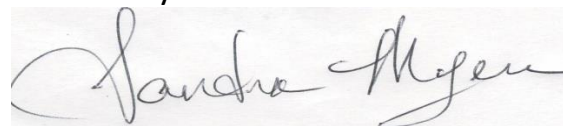

The 2023 Black Cowboy Festival and Rodeo was reasonably successful in obtaining its goals in enlightening, educating and entertaining the communities that attended the event May 25- May 28, 2023. The event attracted attendees from all over the East coast and brought Two hundred RVs into the county of Sumter where they ate at the Restaurants, purchase gas and went shopping. The event also attracted attendees that stayed at Sumter, Camden and Columbia SC Hotels. The event had attendees that came from as far as Seattle Washington and California just to experience what the event had to offer. Local attendees and artists had great feedback for the weekend event as well. Thursday and Friday May 25th and 26th, Our educational and arts days was well attended , unfortunately, our overall attendance on Saturday May 27th was down due to unforeseen weather conditions.

The attendance over the four-day weekend was approximately (1500).

BCE Society

803-499-9658

Sandra Myers CFO

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Sandra Myers", written in dark ink on a light-colored background.